RICE AND CALLAHAN ARRIVE THIS WEEK.

Both Fighters Will Be in the City by Saturday, and Rice May Arrive Earlier.

Transportation was yesterday wired to Austin Rice and Tim Callahan by President Haughton of the West End Club, and it is ected that the men will reach this city by Thursday or Friday, at least. Callahan may not start for St. Louis immediately uppearance, as he has never yet fought in the West. All his battles have been in the Eastern cities, with an occasional bout in the South, and his entire record of more than 100 battles was made in the Eastern towns. He is expected to give Callahan a towns. He is expected to give Callahan a hard battle.

Callahan is about the hardest customer that Terry McGovern ever tackied, and in case of his winning the bout over Rice, chances for additional matches with men of the highest rank in his class seem excellent. Efforts will be made by President Haughten to match the winner of the bout sgainst the best men in his division.

Jack Dunleavy and Charley Cornwall, who will go on in a six-round preliminary on that occasion, are both local men, Cornwall being a resident of this city, while Dunleavy has been here for a couple of years, after arraing from Boston. Dunleavy is under the management of Mal Doyle, and the latter thinks well of his man as a coming fighter.

Dunleavy's record includes one twenty-round and one eight-round draw with Bob Douglass, on both of which occasions he is said to have had Douglass guessing hard all through the fight. Douglass had the best of the weight on each occasion.

According to dispatches from the East.

According to dispatches from the East, New Yorkers are anxious to see some re-vival of the boxing game in their vicinity, and the sports of that city are deprecating the present stoppage of fighting, which de-tracts considerably from the liveliness of the town. While there is plenty of indoor sport such as pool, bowling and billiards in force, there is absolutely nothing stirring in the city of a more exciting nature—that in the city of a more exciting nature—that is, if the six-day walking race is barred.

Tom O'Rourke has returned to New York after the stoppage of the game in Connecticut, and is quoted as saying that he expects to see a revival of fighting later. O'Rourke is extremely optimistic on this point always, however, and his opinion carries little weight. Just at present he is said to confine himself to bowling as a pastime and as a means of keeping down his flesh. One noticeable feature, referred to in New York dispatches, is the fact that fighters seem to be passing, temporarily at least, as saloon proprietors. Corbett's saloon has long since been torn down, and Sharkey is about the only pugilist making good money. He is said to be extremely popular in New York, and his bar is reported to have made him much money of late.

Fitzsimmons is also to be seen along Broadway, but he is keeping very much to himself. From all accounts, the present winter is about the quietest in a sporting way that New York has had of late.

McGovern will commence his training

McGovern will commence his training work to-day for his bout with Sullivan.

work to-day for his bout with Sullivan, quarters having been secured for him near Price's Hill. in Cincinnati, Aithough his bout is but little more than two weeks of, he believes that he can work himself into shape in time, and is confident of securing the decision over Sullivan,

More interest centers in the bout all over the country than has been taken in any contest since the Sharkey-Maher fiasco at Philadelphia. This is largely due to the fact that McGovern's condition will be practically an unknown quantity until he has fought a round or so, as, however well he may appear physically previous to the bout, it is impossible to say what effect a few blows in the region of the nose will have upon the former feather-weight champion.

It is but a few days since McGovern had It is but a few days since McGovern had the silver tubes removed from the nasai passages, and to enter the ring within two weeks and a half is something unknown in the ring of to-day. It is practically cer-tain that McGovern's nose will be an ob-jective point for Sullivan's blows, and unless Terry is in a more advanced stage of conditioning than articles would lead one to suppose, these blows will give him trouble.

This fact lends an open appearance to the bout it would not otherwise have, as Mc-Govern would have been an overpowering favorite in the betting, in spite of his defeat by Young Corbett, had it not been for the operation. As it is, many sporting men are betting on Suillivan, and while odds have not yet settled down to official figures, it seems likely that the men will be close together in point of price, with McGovern a slight favorite.

Suillvan's chances in the bout, under Sullivan's chances in the bout, under present conditions, cannot be denied, and a fight worth seeing is looked for when the men come together. They will meet before the Southern Athletic Club of Louis-ville, February 22.

Frank Erne and Joe Gans will meet in Philadelphia next Friday evening, and this second fight of the men is expected to furnish a fast contest. The men are old opponents, and in their previous meeting Gans was forced to cuit because of an injured eye. Erne's last effort was against Rube Ferns, with the result that Frank was knocked out. It is not considered likely that the six-round bouts possible in Philadelphia will result in a decisive contest, however.

MITCH IN FITZ-JEFFRIES FIGHT. Champion Refuses to Accept Equal Division of Gate Receipts.

New York, Feb. 3.-Expectations of an late match between Jim Jeffries and Bob Fitzaimmons were shattered to-day n Jeffries and Jim Kennedy, acting for the Yosemite Athletic Club of San Fran-cisco, talked matters over in a newspaper cisco, talked matters over in a newspaper office.

Jeffries promptly refused to make a match on the terms already accepted by Fitzaimmons, and there the matter rests for the present. Kennedy's offer, which Fitzeimmons agreed to, was an equal division of the gross receipts and picture privileges by ween the fighters and the club, each to talte one-third.

Jeffries has communicated with Billy Delancy, his manager, who is now in San lariey, his manager, who is now in San Prancisco looking over the ground. The champion's future actions regarding a match with Fitzsimmons will be largely guided by what Delaney may suggest.

BOXING ASSOCIATION TO MEET.

Rules to Govern All Contests Prob-ably Will Be Formulated. New York, Feb. 3.-A meeting of the American Boxing Association will be held in the Hotel Bartholdi, this city, next Friday evening for the purpose of adopting rules and by-laws.

rules and by-laws.

It is more than probable that a new set of rules to govern all future amateur and professional boxing contests in this country will be formulated. The association has issued invitations to many persons throughout the United States and Canada connected with this sport to be present, either in person or by proxy.

SPORTSMEN'S GAME SHOW OPENS. Chicago Society People Out in Force the First Night.

the First Night.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—The opening of the second annual sportsman's show of the International Forest and Game Association at the Collseum to-night took the aspect of a society event. Nearly 19,000 persons were in attendance. The great building has the appearance of an immense forest, with a large artifical lake, duck marshes and ponds and animal parks.

One of the features is a sylvan stage upon which fifty Ojibway Indians and an orchestra of thirty pieces presented the dramatization of Longfellow's Hiawatha. The exhibition contains the 1: gest collection of living game from A serican and Canadian forests and streams—animals, birds and fish—ever shown in this country.

Compete at Lawrence.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Columbia, Mo., Feb. 3.—Doctor C, W. Heatherington definitely announced to-day that the dual track team meet, Missourl's track team last year was limited to ten men, seven of whom are in training now, but this year there are several other prominent candidates. The seven who returned are Ellis, Russell, Hilder, McCasiln, Saunders, Potter and Foster. The foremost of the new men are Birney, Nick Hall and Wulff. These men have records and Douglass is a new one who promises development.

A new contest which will be held at the 'varsity this spring is the one for the title of "all'round champion." Several class meets will take place beginning as soon as the weather permits and two weaks before the Kansas—Missourl day it will be determined who is the all'round champion.

Missourl's weakest point in track team atheites heretofore has been in pele vaulting. Doctor Heatherington is especially anxious that a man develops in this feature this spring and has done some extra work along this line. The physical director, himself, is one of the best known pole vaulters in the country, and he says there is no reason why Missouri should not furnish Kansas a little surprise right here.

The track team men are especially anxious to get a meet with Washington University this season, and Doctor Heatheringon will try to arrange a meet between Drake, Washington University of take place in St. Louis about the first of May.

Montreal, Feb. 3.—Round sixteen of the Berger-Tables served for the pacing of the first round of the international chess master's tournament, which was begun here this morning. The order of play was as foilinis morning. The order of play was as follows:

Mason vs. Blackburne, Tschigorin vs. Tarasch, Maroczy vs. Pilisbury, Marshall vs. Albin, Wolf vs. Reggie, Mieses vs. Mortimer, Schiechter vs. Teychmann, Joanowsky vs. Gunsberg, Popell vs. Marter, Hapler vs. Eisenberg, and Schreves vs. Tubenbaus.

At the first adjournment, at I o'clock this afternoon, the following results had been received: Marcozy had beaten Pilisbury (Petroff's defense 33 moves); Janowsky had disposed of Gunsberg, Napier had the better game against Eisenberg, and Wolf had a superior position in his game with Reggio. In the afternoon and evening sessions the results were: Tachogorin defeated Tar-

Mealeer SIGNS DAVY JONES. Fast Youngster Will Play Right Field

Though the fact has not been officially announced by Jimmy McAleer, Davy Jones, the Three-Eye League star, who finished the Three-Eye League star, who finished the least season with Milwaukee, will be a member of the St. Louis American League team next season unless he breaks his word with McAleer. McAleer made Jones an offer last week which caused the fast young fielder to desert Frank Selee immediately. Before playing prefessional ball, Jenes was a member of the Dixon College team of Dixon. Ill., about 160 miles west of Chicago. Last summer he was signed by Rockford and ended as a Brewer. He made a great hit at Milwaukee on account of his good batting and his nimbleness in covering his position. When the announcement was made that the cream of the Milwaukee team would be transferred to St. Louis, Jones did not take kindly to the proposition and declared that he would play clsewhere. He imagined that St. Louis was full of malaria and other discomforts, and when James A. Hart offered him a contract with the Chicago National League club he talked business. It now develops that Jones signed a conditional contract with Selee, agreeing to accept a berth with the Chicago club in case he decided not to stick to St. Louis. This was done more than a month ago, and it was generally considered that Jones was lost to St. Louis.

While McAleer, Ban Johnson and R. L. Hedges were on their way to St. Louis to organize the local club, McAleer got busy with Jones. Some of the "roll" which Hedges is alleged to have turned over to McAleer probably was used in the deal. At present Jones is a student at Dixon College, where he returned after the close of last season. the least season with Milwaukee, will be a a few months ago. He is said to have been shooting craps when the difficulty occurred, the quarrel having started in a dispute over some money in the game. Peter Roddy, who was arrested after the shooting and held at the Soulard street station pending an investigation, witnessed the affair. He says that when the dispute arose over the ownership of a $2 bill that was lying on the table. Hannon and Baker grappled with each other, but were sepa rated, and that Hannon went out through the rear door. Presently he returned and fired two shots. Hannon Says He Was Attacked. Hannon awaited the arrival of the police and handed them his weapon, a rusty, :4-caliber revolver of ancient make, of which Baker is said to have remarked:

"its had enough to be shot, but when I saw the weapon he used I felt insuited."
It is claimed by Hannon, who is smaller than Baker, that the latter attacked him without provocation, and then threatened "I had trouble with Baker once before,"

"I had trouble with Baker ones before, the prisoner stated, "and this time when he picked up some money which belonged to me, and I called him down and ordered him out, he said he wouldn't get out; that it would be either him or me to a finish. Well, he didn't get out; he came at me the second time, and I defended myself. I am sorry I permitted a crass game after I am sorry I permitted a craps game after having discontinued it for four months, and I am also sorry my sister got hurt. When I went for my gun she evidently followed me, but in the excitement I don't know whether she ran in between us and received the ball first, or whether it rebounded from her to Baker." Baker Gives His Version. Baker, at the City Hospital, stated that he was unaware that Miss Hannon had been shot. He said that the trouble between himself and Hannon had arisen because he had tried to induce William Grimes, a friend, to quit the craps game. "Grimes was about $40 winner," said Baker. "I thought he ought to get out of the game and tried to induce him to do so. This effort on my part enraged Hannon, and he and I had some words. Finally, he struck at me and I struck back. We scuffled and he drew a pistol, firing one shot. After that he ran upstairs and I remained in the saloon until the police came. Hannon and I had been friends, but he is a hard loser, and I guess he forgot what he was doing. I was in the game in the afternoon, but had no connection with the game between Hannon and Grimes."

Baker stated that he was a orphan and was boarding at the South Fourth street address. He is unemployed, having recently returned from the Philippines. Baker, at the City Hospital, stated that
